* ABSTRACT *

This study aims to see how the implementation of Good village Governance at the village level since village Autonomy, the granted through law no. 6 of 2014 Concerning villages have been free to manage their government. The object of this research is Gorafudi village, Anakapalli District. This study only focuses on implementing good governance in Gorafudi village in 2022. Researcher takes three indicators performing Good village governance in Gorafudi village the principles of Participation, Transparency and Accountability. The method used is descriptive with data collection techniques using in-depth interview with stakeholders. The findings of this study are that the village of gorafudi still has a low level of participation from the community regarding development and ideas given to the town itself. Finally the accountability aspect of the village Government has been carried out by existing regulations.
