• Uses of Mobile Phone objectives :-

Mobile Phone have transformed many business culture because they also employees do communicate rapidly facilitating many business processes that would otherwise do sales business expanded mobile phone can do provide an easy and industries into life along with quick access to email and other digital forms of communication.

1. Access, Direct

• The primary objective of mobile phone in business environments is to provide the access ability of business information.

• No longer does it matter if an employee is in the office or not.

• Check out on business travel as business mobile and on business travel or field calls and check voice - mail messages just as if they were at their desk in the office.

• This type of accessibility find some businesses checking.

1. Internet Access :-

* While laptops have been commonly used to access the Internet, with employees use in mobile mobile phones are quickly replacing them.

* Mobile phones can also be used to provide an Internet access to check Internet content during the downtime provided by the cell phone net work.

2. Instant communication :-

Mobile phones can also provide quick access to alternative communication channels, such as Twitter and Facebook, which are increasingly becoming more popular ways for businesses to reach customers and employees alike for mobiles.

3. Contact storage :-

* In the pre - so - digital past, many business people relied on retaining of physical address books to store their contacts.

* Mobile phones in business have replaced these physical means of contact storage but at their office.

Limitations :-

- The study does not provide a holistic view of the field reality and hence researchers should not provide conclusive evidence to any social characteristics in particular about they and of its setting or underlying trend.
- The findings are based entirely upon the research conducted in India and hence may not be applicable directly to other metropolitan areas on grounds of socio-cultural diversity and contextual facility.
- With a larger sample size spread across the metropolitan cities in India one might arrive at results with higher confidence levels and also at trends to which India is particular.
- Such a survey needs to be undertaken periodically to gauge the exact consumer perception that they keep changing with time.
- Due to constraints of time, certain topics have not been touched upon at all during the course of the study and in depth analysis may be further taken up in future.

Basic mobile phone services do allow users to make calls and send text messages

All GSM phones use a SIM card to allow an account to be swapped among devices. Some other devices also have a SIM card called an UIM.

Security which restricts the same phone to be used in multiple countries, meaning that the operators of both countries have a varying agreement.

Applications like a clock, alarm, calendar, contacts, and a few others.

Sending and receiving pictures, MMS, and for short distances with e.g. Bluetooth.

In multimedia phones Bluetooth is commonly not an integral feature.

Objective of the Activity Done:

Detailed Report:

I conducted this survey and very comprehensive and satisfying analysis about the mobile work.

On the basis of obtained results it can be said that majority of the college students are using the mobile phones and those who are not using are also using the mobile phone. Also most of the students are interested in internet surfing, watching call, and SMS and all. They have some different views but based on the use of mobile is not at all different compared to normal. It may also be said that people prefer to use the mobile phone. Another important aspect is the fact that people are using the mobile phone. It will be useful to do the calculation to find out the mobile addiction and occasionally people can be found. The security concerns may be one of the factors that influenced by the mobile phone use. The mobile phone use, also used to overcome the feeling of loneliness, some people are using the mobile phone so excessively that it causes the loss of addiction.

usage of cell phone

Mobile phones are one of the most commonly used devices in today's world.

They come in use for communicating through voice messages and calls, we can also surf the internet using a phone - most interestingly we can click photos and record videos through our mobile camera.

Advantages of mobile phone

- ⇒ easy communication. The main benefit of using the mobile phone is that they make the mode of communication easier and quicker.
- ⇒ compact
- ⇒ social media
- ⇒ promoting business
- ⇒ help for work's safety
- ⇒ helpful in emergency situations.

→ with money via mobile.

→ receiving the reward through mobile money.

→ ease of transactions and payments: providing the most convenient way for the most important advantage of smart money.

→ staying connected: you can be reached by friends and family even when you're taking a break or on the go.

Disadvantages of mobile

There are many disadvantages of using mobile money, such as limited access, social disruption, poor security, lack of privacy, cost of accidents, health problems, with energy network issue, bank transaction error, meetings, etc. - - - work-life balance: - you could potentially be stuck at work even when office hours if you're constantly interrupted by personal calls at work. other way it is disrupting balance.

missing exercise: - not people are staying at their desks or mobile being asleep in the dark of night. this can lead to physical inactivity.

Impact of Mobility

- ⇒ Study also that people advised do mobile phones after are advised in depression, study about their mental stability.
- ⇒ Cost of SIMs - The average mobile checks his phone once every 12 minutes, making do so fifty a day - but at the time people just check their phones for no good reason.
- ⇒ The mobile phones are used at many more hospitals, judicial courts, petrol pumps where their life is better.
- ⇒ The police may also pay some use in high mobile phone use.
- ⇒ The study will be done on experimental basis and there will not be any hypothesis.

CHAPTER 6 : RECOMMENDATIONS AND CONCLUSIONS of THE MINI PROJECT

This survey is a useful examination of the modern phenomenon of mobile phone dependency or of utility.

This study included into consideration of an emerging pattern of mobile phone usage.

Mobile phone technology has strongly impacted the old academic work and disrupted their daily activities.

Despite the positive benefits of using a cell phone for people, cell phones have completely changed our world, people rely on them for instant time, business, school, and so much more, cell phones are not just cell phones anymore, people rely on them for video chatting for conference calls, searching the web for nearly having pictures of their partners, using a GPS tracking system etc, the reliance of people on cell phones increases and people rely on them more than ever.

Cell phones have become a part of everyday life and I could not imagine what it would be like living in life without having a cell phone. Being away at school still can also be kept in contact with my family at all times I am far away from them.
